
TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of authors	6
List of abbreviations and contractions	7
Preface	8
Section 1. General approaches to the legal regulation of the gaming industry	15
1.1. Varieties of legal relations arising with regard to online multiplayer games (Rozhkova, M. A.)	17
1.2. Applicability of Article 1062 of the Russian Civil Code to the video games (Lukyanov, R. L.)	30
1.3. Civil legal regime of video games in the copyright context (Makhmudova, A. D.)	38
1.4. Sovereignty of game worlds: how the law should regulate virtual games (Grigoriev, D. A.)	55
1.5. Arbitration and mediation in cybersports (Karpychev, B. A.)	66
Section 2. Legal regimes of game rules, game assets, and game characters	85
2.1. Legal nature and protection of game mechanics (Ozherelyev, V. A.)	87
2.2. Legal qualification of in-game objects under the EU law (Bychkova, K. M.)	96
2.3. Legal regulation of in-game objects and their circulation (Churilov, A. Y.)	111
2.4. Legal aspects of creating a visual image of a video game character (Zhitkova, D. A.)	121
2.5. NFT and virtual property (Kulakova, O. S.)	133
Section 3. Computer programme and other components of a video game in the legal context	153
3.1. Computer game modding and user-generated content: general issues (Nikiforov, A. A.)	155
3.2. Limits of computer game modding set by user agreements (Lazareva, Y. A.)	179
3.3. Varieties of modding (Saifutdinov, B. L.)	186
3.4. Computer game developer»s monopoly in the context of cybersports (Subbotin, S. A.)	194
3.5. Legal status of font in the context of its use in computer games (Artemova, K. O.)	203
Section 4. Legal rights of video game users	209
4.1. Blurring of the boundaries between gambling and gaming. Legal regulation of loot boxes (Lidovsky, S. A.)	211
4.2. Return of money for a video game as a consumer right (Galkin, N. A.)	233